

FAITH, HOPE AND THE CHALLENGE OF THE GOSPEL

Reverend Paul Cowley

1. Introduction

Jeremiah 29: 11-13

Romans 5: 1-5

2. The Bible says we have hope and that God has a plan for our lives

a. What if you don't know this plan?

Jeremiah 29: 11-13

b. What about all the problems we have in life?

Romans 5: 1-5

3. We have work to do

a. The story of our lives is important, it's our history.
God can use our suffering.

b. He has work for us to do, our calling?

c. How do I find my place in his work?

4. What next?

a. Making changes in our lives, how?

b. Staying on the chosen path, how?

c. Bearing much fruit.

d. Advancing the kingdom in what we do.

5. Summary/Notes

God has a plan, but someone has to tell us about that story. Alpha is an easy way of expressing the gospel especially to military people, enabling them to hear the gospel message of salvation.
